A Note from Mrs. C.

Hang on to your hats! This week, and half of next week is going to be a wild ride! This week is Red Ribbon Week. There are all kinds of little things happening during the week. Please see the flier that was sent home to know what the special days are for the week. Wednesday is the Red Ribbon Parade. We will be walking to the parade route right behind the school on Jersey St. Parents are welcome to walk with us. We should be leaving between 8:30 – 8:45 am.

There's still more! Friday is the FAFC Harvest Fair. This is a fun and very big event for the church. Due to their needs for the property, we get a half day of school. Friday is a 1:15 pm dismissal, but there is daycare provided. We also completed our first marble jar last week and we will be celebrating with a popcorn bar on Friday, during our snack and recess time.

Are you still on this rollercoaster with me? Just a heads up, next week is Bible Dress-Up Day/Parade. Wednesday, Oct. 31 is the day we hold this event and it also includes our Harvest Party. Victoria's mom, Brenda, along with some others are putting this party together. See her if you would like to help. Please join us if you can. We will start around 9:15 am. Start thinking of a costume that is either Bible related or something God made. The parade is at 11:00. This is also a 12:00 pm dismissal time with daycare provided.

This week starts Christmas play rehearsals. If your child has a major speaking part, they must attend the after-school rehearsals from 3:15-4:30. Most rehearsals will be in the church sanctuary.

Breathe...just breathe!

WE GOT THIS, Cuz God is in control!
